ART CATALOGS

Catalogues Raisonnés:
A catalogue raisonné is a published catalog of an artist's complete works, or a selection of it organized by medium or chronology. Catalogues raisonnés include comprehensive information about the provenance, physical descriptions, and exhibition history of artworks; they also include bibliographies and basic biographical information.

To search for a catalogue raisonné in OBIS, do an advanced search:
In keyword, type catalogue raisonné
In keyword, type the artist's first and last names

Or search the International Foundation for Art Research database for published catalogues raisonnés (which you can then order from OhioLINK or ILL).

Exhibition Catalogs:
These catalogs document temporary museum or gallery exhibitions and are useful for locating related bibliography, illustrations, provenance, descriptions of artworks, and basic information about particular artworks.

To search for an exhibition catalog in OBIS, do an advanced search:
In keyword, type either the institution's name or type exhibit*
In keyword, type either the artist's name or the exhibition title
