

the _____ bowling alley, and some years later, another one was built, with in open, which was open to the public. These are some of the things which made an _____ realize that the city would not all free as they could have been or should have been.

: What year did this take place as far at the court-----?

: It must have been in the year 1934, I believe, 1934.

: 1934

: 1934, and I don't think they've dealt the new _____ till after, I believe that was close to or after the war period.

: World War Two?

: World War Two.

: Where was the first bowling alley located?

: The first one, bowling alley located is the place where the Post Office is now is.

Oh-h-h

: I believe that is.

And the new one that they built, from _____?

The new one built was built on a _____ then the administration _____ then President Roosevelt got the credit for completing it in his administration.

Remember where that was located?

That was located on West Side of South Main Street. Post Office stills stands there today.

What type of occupations did you have when you new in Oberlin, what type of jobs did you have on the campus or in the city?

The first two years in Oberlin, I didn't work, I realized or thought that so many negros too and working, at least, some at least hold back, and I not work, so didn't work, but my third year, I began to work in the Dining