

Room and I worked there in order to help with my expenses, thats all the (chiming bells in background) work I did .

nt: That's the only work you did? What were some of the controversial subjects that were going on at the time that you were a student, what were some of the issues, political issues you can remember?

ar: When I lived in the seminary, we didn't participate too much on the issues on the college campus, but I do know that Socialism and perhapes Communism has some interest within the college area, of course very few seminaries if any would participate in _____ in college you weren't involved.

nt: Did you know your wife at the time?

ar: Oh, yes I (laughs) I met her the night that the students were invited to _____ . She was, she and many member of the church were expecting me, because of a higher recommendation which Dr. Thurman had given, and also I have written a letter to her husband, I mean, to her Uncle, seeking his ideas on finding work within the area, upon my arrival, unfortunately when I got here I learned that he had passed, but e Widow's there she was there to greet me hugged me--- t: What's her name?

r? Louise---Louise Breeze Long, I mean Louise Olds Long, so I met the family and other families, and then some months after that I began to visit her home, at least once a week or once a month (laughs) And then we married in 1936 at my home in Atlanta, Georgia.

t: Oh, you were married in Atlanta, Georgia?

r: Oh, yes, yes-----had to get something in our lives (laughs)

t: What were some of her family members names?

r: Her family member names was Bowens.

t: Bowen?(spells it out)

r: Bows.
