

keeping up the streets in the negro, so-called negro area of the city. It makes laws, but they also change laws, these things are generally done in the council, but they are done outside the council. And of course if the people ever _____ manage to get the city managers to go along with them, in a hugh attempt to _____ with that new ruling are, you must go to court, and I'll give you a good illustration, when we first decided to build, you had to get all neighbors within 200 feet of your property _____ are ready to see about building an aprtment. Neighbors gave all of the city vote wanted to know why we wanted to build? And I might say that they haven't changed.
