

ES Did they make enough money to live?

AQ Yes, they did. They did pretty good on the farm.

ES What do you remember about working on the farm?

AQ Well, I picked cotton, hoed cotton, picked corn, poured water on the corn.

ES Whom did your parents rent the farm from?

[She named the man, but I couldn't understand the name because it was a poor tape.]

ES Was he white?

AQ Yes, he was white.

ES Did you ever feel any discrimination from him?

AQ Oh no, there was no discrimination.

ES You said on the phone that you didn't go to school. Am I right?

AQ I didn't go to school here. I went to school in Duvest, South Carolina, and I went from there to Churoy, South Carolina. For a year and then I come back.

ES Did you go to elementary school in Duvest?

AQ Yes.

ES To what grade?

AQ To tenth grade.

ES Do you remember how many students were in your elementary school class?

AQ I think there were ten. Then I went to high school and there were fifteen of us in there. Then I graduated from high school and I went away to college for one year.

ES Did you finish high school at home?

AQ Yes. I graduated from high school in Duvest and went to school at Churoy for one year.

ES How many of the students in your high school class went on to college?

AQ Well, none of them went to where I went.

ES Did many go on to college?

AQ Well, about four or five.

ES Out of how many?
