

AQ Fifteen, I think. Quite a few of them graduated but they didn't go on to college. They just stayed home.

ES Did they work?

AQ Yes.

ES How did you pay for school?

AQ Well, I got scholarships.

ES Was it co-educational?

AQ Uh huh.

ES When you went to Churoy, was that a segregated college?

AQ Yes.

ES What did you do after you came back from Churoy?

AQ I worked with my dad and mother.

ES On the farm?

AQ Machine.

ES And when you were twenty-three, you came to Oberlin?

AQ Machine.

S How was your town similar to Oberlin?

Q It wasn't a big town.

Q What was the industry in your town? Did people farm?

Yes, they farmed and they worked in the factories. They had to go to Everview, South Carolina to work in the factories because we didn't have a factory.

Q Did people work for the college?

Oh, yes, they worked for the college.

Q When you came to Oberlin, did you miss Duvest?

In some ways I did, some ways I didn't.

Q What did you miss about Duvest?

Well I had friends there. When I left Duvest, I didn't have to work on the farm any more.
